Antony Micallef

JAN 26 Antony Micallef has created a real gem for the world's biggest Easter egg hunt. From 21st February, London will be filled with 200 giant and uniquely crafted Easter eggs for The Fabergé Big Egg Hunt, a charity venture that raises funds for Action for Children and Elephant Family. Over the course of 40 days/ nights, members of the public will be able to hunt down the strategically placed eggs, decorated by some of the world's leading artists, architects, jewellers and designers including the Bruce Oldfield, Chapman Brothers, Giles Deacon, Zandra Rhodes, Diane Von Furstenberg, Sophie Dahl, Rob Ryan, William Curley, Bompas and Parr and Polly Morgan. The event is set to smash Guinness World Records for the most participants in an Easter egg hunt and the world's most expensive chocolate egg. Here's a sneak peak the egg-sellent creation by Lazarides fave Micallef.
